

General information

Location: Uruguay

Purpose: Foundations for telecommunication towers

Date of completion: several projects since 2014

Client: ANTEL

Contractor: Ebital

Amount of foundations completed: 60

Structural system: Reinforced concrete

Scope of work: Preliminary design, detailed design, technical assistance to the works.

Description

According to the Information and Communication Technologies Development Index, Uruguay has the highest Internet penetration rate and fastest download speed in Latin America.

The telecommunication state company (ANTEL) has an ongoing contract with Ebital, for the construction of their facilities. RDA has been collaborating consistently with Ebital in the structural project and detailed design of foundations of monopoles, guyed-mast towers and self-supported towers.