

General information

Location: Sevilla, Spain

Purpose: Train station

Date of completion: 2014 - 2015.

Client: RENFE (National Spanish Trains)

Prime Consultant: INECO (Tendering Project)

Contractor: DRAGADOS (Executive Project)

Structural system: Metal structures and reinforced concrete structures

Scope of work: Tendering Project and Detailed Design in collaboration with FHECOR

Ingenieros Consultores.

Description

RDA provided tendering project development and executive project development for a new commuters rail train stop in La Salud Station.

The new train stop will improve accessibility and will help promote railway services. It will also contribute to improve life conditions for the people of Sevilla and its surroundings.

The project consists of many structural parts: a footbridge, elevators and metal staircases, reinforced concrete platforms, metal shelters, concrete access and technical building.